POSITION SUMMARY

Imagine a supportive employer, a career that allows you to follow your passion and the endless learning opportunities you will receive. Imagine doing what you're good at and be a part of something extraordinary. At West Haldimand General, you can experience all of that and more. We are currently looking for a Registered Nurse, to join our team as a Clinical Scholar, and gain valuable health care experience for your future.

Reporting to the Manager of Clinical Development, and in collaboration with the Clinical Educator, the ideal candidate will mentor and support nursing graduates, internationally educated nurses (IENs) and nurses looking to upskill. The Clinical Scholar Program will focus exclusively on mentoring new and international nurses in their transition to WHGH and the clinical nursing workforce. The Clinical Scholar will not have a patient caseload, but will support the hospital's academic development by advancing care through teaching and learning, and supporting the aforementioned nurses' practice and integration into the clinical area in accordance with organizational and professional standards, and in collaboration with clinical teams. In addition, the Clinical Scholar will attend professional practice committee, complete quality improvement projects and participate in provincially required MOH CSP webinars (Community of Practice Meetings)

In conjunction with the Clinical Educator, the Clinical Scholar will create, adapt, and deliver orientation and learning resources, using various delivery methods in accordance with organizational and unit policies/practices/guidelines. The Clinical Scholar will provide an ongoing presence on the clinical unit(s) to support the ongoing development of the new graduates, as well as tracking and documentation of skillset achievement, and will provide ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the new graduate and the scholar program, including the creation of learning goals and objectives.

WHGH is just a short 30-minute drive away from Simcoe, Brantford and Hamilton. Come join our friendly and experienced team today!
